

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH

Edinburgh Award (Library and University Collections Volunteers)

This award is given to students whom the University has recognised for actively working to maximise their impact and excel as a volunteer in the Library and University Collections department. These students have, through a variety of roles, provided invaluable support throughout this department helping bring the institution's collections to the University community and wider public, developing knowledge and ability in a specialist area.

In successfully completing the Edinburgh Award, these students will have been helped to:

- increase awareness of their strengths
- make the most of their strengths, identify areas for development, and work on a plan to develop these skills
- confidently demonstrate what they have to offer to others
- achieve a positive and lasting impact
- look not only at their volunteering, but also to capitalise on their experiences elsewhere to inform and enhance their role as a volunteer, and vice versa.
