

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH

Edinburgh Award (School of Law: Student Leaders)

This award is given to students in the School of Law whom the University has recognised for actively working to maximise their impact and excel as a student leader. These students have taken on a wide variety of roles across the School from committees, societies, and councils to student groups, each adding to the student experience offered to the School's students.

In successfully completing the Edinburgh Award, these students will have been helped to:

- increase their self-awareness;
- make the most of their existing strengths and build new skills/abilities against clear development goals;
- understand the processes involved in having a planned positive impact and strategically working to excel, enabling them to have impact and make a difference whatever situation they are in; and
- look not only at their student leadership, but also to capitalise on their experiences elsewhere to inform and enhance their role as a student leader, and vice versa.
